

Guidelines for Submitting Events to the Harp Events Calendar

The Washington Area Folk Harp Society keeps a calendar of upcoming harp events local to the Washington, DC, area. They may be events sponsored by WAFHS or events put on by WAFHS members. You are encouraged to list your harp-related events to the WAFHS calendar.

Procedures for Calendar Submissions

The following are the procedures for submitting an event to be listed in the WAFHS calendar:

1. Calendar updates will be posted to the website once a month, as close to the 1st as possible.
2. Calendar submissions may be made at any time, but they won't be added to the website until the next update.
3. The cut-off for submissions for the next posting will be the 21st of the month.
4. A reminder will be sent on the 15th of the month.
5. Updates must be sent to web@wafhs.org. They will not be included if they are sent anywhere else.
6. The submissions must be in this format:

date

event name

location (address)

performer -- name, and website if there is one contact -- phone, email, website

additional info -- fee, other performers

time

Excessively long submissions are subject to editing.

Example Calendar Submission

These are examples of acceptable submissions:

September 31, 2011

date: September 31, 2011

Harpoon Concert

event: Harpoon Concert

Pequod Building, 1851 Water Street,
Washington, DC

location: Pequod Building, 1851
Water Street, Washington, DC

Harpoon - www.harpoon.com performer: Harpoon - www.harpoon.com

Tom Tashtego - 444-444-4444, tashtego@harpoon.com

contact: Tom Tashtego - 444-444-4444, tashtego@harpoon.com

Harpoon are Tom Tashtego, Rex
Queequeg, Marta Daggoo, and Lora Fedallah. They bring the traditional harp music of the Sandwich Islands to the modern world.

additional info: Harpoon are Tom Tashtego, Rex Queequeg, Marta Daggoo, and Lora Fedallah. They bring the traditional harp music of the Sandwich Islands to the modern world.

Free admission

Free admission

7 - 9 pm

time: 7 - 9 pm

If you have any questions, please send them to web@wafhs.org.

Calendar submissions to this address will be ignored.